

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR MICHAEL D. ANTONOVICH

JANUARY 9, 2007

Freddy Sanchez Day

Frederick "Freddy" Phillip Sanchez graduated from Burbank High School in 1996, where he has proven to be an enthusiastic and invaluable alumni of Burbank High School. Through his actions on the field he won league MVP honors during his senior year at Burbank High School. Upon graduating from Burbank High School, he went on to play at Glendale Community College and Oklahoma City College earning NAIA All-American honors. In 2000, he was selected by the Boston Red Sox and then traded to the Pittsburg Pirates in 2003. In 2006, he played his first major league baseball All Star Game.

He was presented the "2006 National League Batting Title" with a .344 average, his batting title is the 25th title in Pirate history, the most of any team; as well as receiving the prestigious "Tony Conigliaro" award for overcoming adversity through spirit, courage, and determination. Freddy Sanchez is honored for his accomplishments in major league baseball.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE that the Board proclaim January 12, 2007, as "Freddy Sanchez Day" throughout the County of Los Angeles.
